

Language Arts 3 Assessment Answer Key

1. Answers will vary. One possible answer may be:

“The Bible is full of wonderful stories.”

2. m (Mary), j (John)

d (Do), s (Sarah)

t (The), u (United), s (States’), m (Mexico)

t (The)

3. Answers will vary. Some possible answers might be:

My dad is tall. He is as tall as the Empire State Building.

The snow made my socks wet. My socks are as wet as a washcloth sitting in a tub full of water.

4. Answers will vary. Some possible answers might be:

The soft, fuzzy kitten sat beside Frank’s baseball glove.

The tiny kitten sat in a basket lined with a soft blanket.

5. Answers will vary. Your student must write a minimum of 3 sentences in the body of the letter. Be sure the content of the letter is persuasive in nature.

6. Answers will vary. Some possible answers might be:

The badger is talented.

My uncle was funny.

The cookies were delicious.

7. Answers will vary. Be sure your student’s poem matches the rhyme pattern a, a, b, b.

8. Answers will vary. One possible answer might be:

She threw them on a chair and then she gulped down her milk.

Answers will vary to the second part of the question. Remind your student that they can use the list of coordinating conjunctions from the previous question.

9. do not – don’t, we are – we’re, has not – hasn’t

Will’s car

Matt’s tree

Grandma’s cookies

10. Answers will vary. Some possible answers might be:

My father is the funniest man in the whole, wide world!

Would you like to know the color of our baseball uniforms?

I would like chocolate sprinkles on my sundae ... or maybe I’ll have hot fudge.