Good King Wenceslas looked out
On the feast of **,
(stars / snow / Stephen)
When the snow lay round about,
Deep and and even.
(smooth / crisp / shiny)
Brightly shone the moon that night,
Though the was cruel,
(snow / frost / fire)
When a poor man came in sight,
Gath'ring fuel.
(firewood / berries / winter)

King Wenceslas: Songs & Kindness

The story of Wenceslas sharing food and firewood comes from the famous Christmas carol you just heard. But the song is based on his real reputation—he was known for helping the poor because he loved God. What can you share to show kindness or generosity—because you love God?

Bible & Reflection

"Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

— Matthew 25:40

When we serve others, we serve Christ. What's one way your family could share food, time, or warmth with someone this Christmas?
