

Slovak National Uprising

What Happened?

On August 29, 1944, brave Slovak people including soldiers, students, and everyday citizens stood up against the Nazi army to fight for their country's freedom. They wanted to protect others and help bring peace during a very difficult time. Even though it was dangerous, they worked together because they believed in doing what was right.

Honor the Brave: Use the paper candles below to remember those who stood for justice.

- Write a word like freedom, peace, or hope
- Add a short thank-you message
- Decorate with red, white, and blue (Slovak colors)
- Display as a Wall of Honor or a group wreath

